Nativity Altar Women

Install in Impressive Rites

New officers of the Nativity Altar Society were installed in impressive ceremonies with the theme "All For Thee, O Lord" on June 20 at the Nativity Annex.

Mrs. A. C. Schemenauer assumed the society presidency. Other new officers are Mmes. James Neary, vice president; Joseph C. Moore, secretary; and W. B. Camp, treasurer.

Participating in the traditional candlelight service were 12 guild chairmen, Mmes. Walter Cason, January; William Wochna, February; Clark Graham, March; Ann Bogosi, April; Bernard Dougan, May; R. L.

Moffitt, June; James O'Brien, July; Marie Lincoln, August; R. L. Lewellen Jr., September; Raymond Montenegro, October; Carroll Thornton, November; and Jaek Wolinsky, December.

Installing officers were Mrs. Frank Genta and Mrs. Raymond Sullivan.

The officers and chairmen, holding lighted candles, formed a cross on the stage as Mrs. Kathy Cooney sang "Ave Maria" with Mrs. Charles Butterfield at the piano.

Rev. Peter Foster of Nativity Church congratulated the new officers and presented each of the outgoing officers with a crucifix.

They are Mmes. Robert Wilson, Beatrice Bundy and Thomas Clinkenbeard. Mrs. Rudy Hanke, who served as president for two years was given a mural of the Last Supper.

Refreshments were served from a decorated table by Mmes. Raymond Montenegro, Walter Cason, and Michael Hill. Mrs. Carroll Thornton presided at the guest book.

Purpose of the Altar Society is the care and decorating of the church altars. The Society sponsors two rummage sales a year to raise funds for this purpose. Membership in the organization is open to all women of the parish.

Next regular meeting will be held at the Nativity Annex, Sept. 19 at 8 p.m.

Bonnie Brett Is Now Mrs. J. R. Daugherty

Miss Bonnie Jean Brett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert J. Brett, 22908 Evelyn Ave., Torrance, walked down the aisle of the St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church in Redondo, on the arm of her father, to plight her marriage promises with Jeffrey Ralph Daugherty in a mid-afternoon ceremony on June 17.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. B. N. Daugherty of Northridge.

The bride wore her mother's wedding gown, fashioned with a white satin bodice and a bouffant net skirt over hoops. Her shoulder-length illusion veil was appliqued with Chantilly. She carried a prayerbook, belonging to the bridegroom's mother, and a bouquet of apple blossoms and a white orchid.

Miss Christy Burns served as the maid of honor and bridesmaids were Misses Sandi Metcalf, Connie Felt, and Mrs. Michael Todd. Brenda Arndt was flower girl.

James Rothenberger stood as best man and ushers were Steve Williams,

Tim Daugherty, Ronald Soos and Albert D. Brett. David Stranger was ring bearer.

Rev. Paul C. Cox officiated at the double ring ceremony after which the 150 guests attended a buffet dinner at the home of the bride's parents.

The honeymoon was spent at Lake Tahoe and the newlyweds are at home in Long Beach.

The bride, a graduate of South High and the El Camino College Cosmetology department, is now employed as a bookkeeper at the Torrance City National Bank.

Mr. Daugherty, a graduate of Washington High and El Camino attends California State College at Long Beach. He is also employed by Douglas at Huntington Beach.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Moyer, Doug and Christine of Los Gatos, formerly of Torrance, spent the four-day holiday here with Mrs. Moyer's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Paour on Amapola.

Cecil Powells Spend 28-Days Touring Europe

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Powell, 2432 Gramercy, joined Mrs. Powell's sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. William Holman of Inglewood on the Rotary charter plane trip to France where Mr. Holman attended the Rotary International Convention in Nice.

The travelers flew directly to Paris for three days of sightseeing before going to Nice for the convention.

After the convention, the foursome went on to Rome, Italy making side trips to Pompeii and Sorrento. They also visited Florence and Venice before going to Austria and Switzerland.

Their itinerary then included three days in Amsterdam and Rotterdam and then to The Hook where they boarded a ship for the overnight trip to Harwick, England. A train trip through the English countryside brought them to London for sightseeing before starting their homeward trip.

At Lake Cachuma

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Moffitt and Mrs. Grace Wright spent from Thursday through Saturday at the Moffitt's new trailer at Lake Cachuma.

Volunteer Bureau Lists Organization Projects

Mrs. Jack O'Donnell, executive director of the Volunteer Bureau, South Bay Harbor, announces a wide choice of community projects for women's organizations in the South Bay and peninsula areas.

Newly-elected philanthropy and projects chairmen are invited to investigate these during the summer months so they can present full details for programs at their fall meetings.

The Volunteer Bureau, with headquarters in the United Way service center at 2008 W. Carson St., Torrance, serves more than fifty social agencies in the community.

Mrs. O'Donnell will be glad to discuss the most needed projects and aid in selecting the most suitable. Interested persons may call her on any Monday, Wednesday of Friday, morning from 9 a.m. to 12 noon at the Volunteer Bureau.
